Re: Solovieva, et al. v. Encompass Ins. Co.

Dear Ms. Reuter:

I write to confirm our telephone discussion earlier today in which you advised me that based on the information available at this time and the allegations in the complaint (including the prayer for punitive damages and the declaratory relief claim relating to potential liability actions from the other drivers in the accident), plaintiffs damages likely exceed the $75,000 jurisdictional minimum for federal court.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. I look forward to working with you on this matter.

Very truly yours,

SONNENSCHN NATH & ROSENTHAL LLP
